

Communication with someone via the anonymous CHAT system of OMS.

How do two people start an earnest conversation for the purpose of finding out if they could possibly participate in a future Marriage Blessing.

In North-America, we encourage each future couple to spend 7 months knowing each other prior to have their commitment ceremony.

There are 3 steps:

Step 1: Find each other

Step 2: 21-Day Introduction Phase

Step 3: 7-Month Communication Phase (the 21-Day can count as part of the 7-Month)

The time frame listed above is only a recommendation – is the not “the law”. However, we found, through experience that is it truly a helpful time frame.

Step 1: Is the most challenging step. That is where a lot of work needs to be done and diligence needs to be there.

That is where, on OMS, the anonymous CHAT function can help.

The purpose of OMS chatting:

- 1) You found the profile of this person interesting. You like it. Therefore, you would not mind starting an earnest conversation with him or her. So, you need to tell this person to take the time to read you profile and see if she or he feels the same.
- 2) You like the profile of someone but you have a couple of questions. Therefore ask. Don't be afraid to ask.
- 3) Someone has read your profile and is interested to communicate with you further. Respond to the Chat. Be polite. Even if the answer is “NO” you must respond. That is the responsible thing to do.

Your OMS Chat will be available to be read by your team. Only your team, meaning your MS and/or your Parents. They are there to guide and support you in your search. OMS Chat's sole purpose is to help you find your Heavenly Spouse. It is an intentional conversation.

I hope this helps,
With gratitude, always
Anne-Marie
